

CLAIRE PANCERZ

COMPLIANCE CONSULTANT

Claire Pancerz, Compliance Consultant, is responsible for working with compliance issues of interest to Holmes Murphy and its clients. Claire holds more than 26 years of experience in health care and insurance, working in marketing, sales, advertising, and compliance. She works diligently to help clients and staff in understanding legislative and regulatory changes to anything affecting health benefits and client compliance.

A graduate of Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, she earned her B.A. in English and History. Claire then went on to attend Washington and Lee University School of Law in Lexington, Virginia, where she earned her J.D. In 2016, Claire obtained her Master's degree in Negotiation and Conflict Resolution from Creighton University.

Prior to Holmes Murphy, Claire served as head of Aetna's Legislative and Regulatory Analysis Unit. She is currently a member of the Texas Bar Association, Executive Healthcare Network, and American Health Lawyers Association.

YOU MIGHT NOT KNOW...

What's Claire passionate about?

Pilates! She basically cannot get through a day without it!

As a child, what did Claire want to be when she grew up?

Her youthful career choices were jockey, librarian, archaeologist, princess, and mermaid. Not kidding...this was her list!